

A Lawyer in Indian Country: A Memoir

Monday, March 22, 2010

12-1PM

Book Signing To Follow

Refreshments Provided

The State Capital Museum invites you to a noon presentation by Alvin J. Ziontz, in celebration of his new historical memoir, A Lawyer in Indian Country, a publication of University of Washington Press.

Alvin Ziontz spent over 30 years representing Indian Tribes. As the senior attorney arguing U.S. v. Washington, Ziontz was a party to the historic 1974 Boldt decision that affirmed the Pacific Northwest tribes' treaty fishing rights, with ramifications for tribal rights nationwide. Ziontz was involved in defending South Sound tribal demonstrators in the Olympia area, and participated in raising public awareness over these monumental issues.

Join us for this inspiring installment of our Winter Lecture Series. The presentation will take place in the Coach House, followed by a special reception and book signing in the historic Lord Mansion.

The State Capital Museum is a division of the Washington State Historical Society. The museum presents exhibits, programs, and events that bring to life the stories of Washington's history and culture.

$2 Suggested Donation

Washington State Capital
MUSEUM

211 21st Avenue Southwest

Olympia, WA 98501

(360) 753-2580

www.washingtonhistory.org