About Us

ABOUT NORTHWEST INDIAN COLLEGE – Through education, Northwest Indian College promotes indigenous self-determination and knowledge. As the only regional tribal college in the U.S. and the only accredited tribal college in Washington, Oregon and Idaho, the College served more than 100 tribes from across the United States last year. In 2007, the College also moved forward toward its vision of becoming a four-year university by establishing its first Bachelor's degree in Native Environmental Science.

House of Learning

The goal of TL'aneq' is to raise $250,000 to create a House of Learning at Northwest Indian College. Native teachings tell us the earth is sacred. The House of Learning honors that sacredness in a natural way with its earthen floor and cedar posts. In this traditional gathering place, only the truth is spoken and the importance of listening is taught. It is a place of balance.

Auction

A select auction of unforgettable Native American cultural experiences will be offered during the dinner.

UNVEILING OF COMMEMORATIVE
PENDLETON BLANKET—Native Artist, Stan Greene, has been commissioned to design a limited-edition commemorative Pendleton blanket in honor of the College's 25th Anniversary.
